Contents of the email are as follows:

Subject: URGENT: Samit Hezra called from my condo mgmt #2605 from division 2 AFTER ME REPORTING CONTINUOUS BREAK-IN TO MY PLACE

Dear ALL,

me (YI CHIN CHOU) and venese... my place has been broken into again and again the past 2 weeks and i had reported to the security and management of my building, as well as more than $2000+ electronics were stolen and broken.

my accounts were hacked, my passwords for iTunes, all my email accounts, etc had been compromised and i had not been able to send all my emails to victim services because emails kept bouncing back.

#2605 officer just came and gave me cc 430. first of all, i can think of more cc articles that i can really commit because of the LACK OF CARE FOR RESIDENTS' SAFETY, BUT I DECIDED TO MAKE MY "FIRST POINT" BY MAKING A DENT IN THE MIDDLE OF THE MANAGEMENT OFFICE'S DOOR, THAT IS THE LEAST DAMAGE THAT WAS DONE TO MY OWN PLACE WHEN I HAD TO KEPT PAYING FOR LOCKSMITH TO CHANGE MY LOCK AND HE CLEARLY POINTED OUT MY PLACE WAS CLEARLY HAD FORCED ENTRY ON MY DOOR.

DEAR DEAR MARIO and SAMIT: there are way more charges i will bring against the management of this building as well as the solicitors of FirstService Residential who has no care for residents' and OWNERS (ME) when my place got broken into numerous times. the entire division 2 is aware of the condo management issues and officer #2605 didn't even introduce himself in the professional manner that is suppose to for victims.....

i had reported i was sexually assaulted. and just 2 weeks ago it happened again (I WAS DRUGGED AND WOKE UP IN EXTREME PAIN BLEEDING FROM VAGINAL AREA FOR 2 DAYS). 2 days!! that is NOT my period!

WHY ISN'T VICTIM SERVICES NOT DOING ANYTHING TO HELP VICTIMS?

I WANT AN ANSWER! I WANT SOLUTIONS! THIS IS NOT THE WAY VICTIM SERVICES SUPPOSE TO WORK!

PLEASE GET BACK TO ME ASAP!

so thank you division 2, and no thank you as well (right now i am not sure. all i am looking forward to is be in court and bring all my evidence in front of the judge OPEN TO PUBLIC)

i will bring the new BOD along with me on this wonderful journey!

i am coming MARIO and SAMIT!

VICTIM SERVICES: this is what happens to victims that you guys help right? think about this and tell me what i can do to make it better

Related date/time: Tuesday, 2019-Nov-12 21:01

On the 12th of November 2019, at 2100 hours Constable Scrymgeour #2303 spoke with Samit HAZRA, the Main Security Supervisor from 9471 Yonge Street, Richmond Hill. He advised that his employee named Braden ATKINSON viewed all CCTV footage on the 2nd of November 2019 between 8am - 7pm. No individual in possession of a speaker or bottle was observed exiting the 8th floor elevator.

Samit HAZRA advised that he and Braden ATKINSON are aware of a suspicious female on the 8th floor and are currently investigating civil matter involving her (identity not divulged). They advised that on the CCTV the female from unit 907 was not observed and did not enter onto the 8th floor on the 2nd of November 2019.

He further advised that the CCTV does not capture the stairwell, which does connect connect the 9th and 8th floor.

 Synopsis *****

Although additional evidence was not gathered showing the suspect entering onto the property, due to the glass observed on the ground level of the unit above and the glass shattered on the balcony of the victim, Constable Scrymgeour #2303 still suspects a resident of the unit above (907) is responsible for committing Mischief, Section 430(4) CC.

Author: 2303 SCRYMGEOUR, JOHN
Related date/time: Tuesday, 2019-Nov-19 23:57

Summary of Statement:

On the 19th of November 2019, at 23:14 hours Constable Scrymgeour #2303 completed a statement with Vanessa BIASINI [REDACTED].

She advised that she resides within Unit 907 and the owner of the unit is Jenna CHOU. She stated they are the only two that live in the unit and do not have visitors. She advised that Jenna is destructive and frequently smashes drinking glasses, vases that hold flowers/plants, and often attends the balcony area. She is the only person that enters the balcony area and has observed her yelling while exiting onto the balcony. She stated that within the past month they have had no visitors and she has heard glass smashing within the apartment. Jenna dislikes the residents of the person directly beneath their unit (APT 806).

Vanessa BIASINI advised that Jenna CHOU recently bought several drinking glasses but she doesn't use them. She believes she keeps them in a yellow bag and they're stored near the TV entertainment unit. She has not checked to see if they are there since the purchase. She further advised that she is tired of Jenna CHOU's antics and wants her to stop being angry and accusing people of stuff not even happening.

she would never say that especially going onto balcony. I do not use my balcony & Vanessa knows I take good care of my plants and vase or Why was there a Coconut of bottles on balcony because she doesn't know. She is autistic so I didn't buy it. I purposely interviewed her to lead into questions to make her confess to me. (read confession) JESS!

Narrative: SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT - 4

Subject: DOORKNOCK - SUSPECT

Author: 2303 SCRYMGEOUR, JOHN

Related date/time: Wednesday, 2019-Nov-20 01:29

On the 19th of November 2019, at approximately 1930 hours Constable Scrymgeour #2303 and Constable Sammerroff #1528 attended 9471 Yonge Street, Richmond Hill to speak with the victim and suspect. (BE: 19-398559 closed NBK).

Upon arrival, officers approached apartment 806 and spoke with the victim. She advised that she has been continuously harassed and on today's date she returned home finding two full bags of garbage tied to her door handle (RE: 19-398483). She photographed the garbage bags (fwd'd to darkroomrequests@yrc.ca) and had property management remove the trash.

At this time Constable Scrymgeour #2303 had formed a very strong suspicion that the Jenna CHOU is responsible for the harassment. He went to prevent any future criminal acts and on the 1950 hours officers attended apartment 907 and conducted a door-knock. Jenna CHOU eventually answered the door and was informed she is being investigated for Mischief and Theft. Prior to being able to formally caution her, Jenna CHOU repeatedly told Constable Scrymgeour #2303 to "fuck off" and leave her alone. She stated she did not believe officers were legitimate police officers and stated they were media.

At this time a resident of apartment 907, later identified as Vanessa BIASINI, exited and spoke with police under her own will. She attended the second floor common area and provided a statement (see statement summary / monitor notes).

As a result of physical evidence, the statement of Vanessa BIASINI, the statement of the victim, reasonable grounds have been formed that Jenna CHOU is the sole individual responsible for committing Mischief, Theft, and Public Mischief (BE: 19-393724).

Constable Scrymgeour #2303 will further investigate and make attempts to place Jenna CHOU in custody.

2303: Does she have an extreme dislike with anyone within this building?
 VB: Disgruntlement with management.

2303: Why?

VB: She claims they broke her pipes, we have a flood after my friend died in July. So on the 13th of July, toilets flooding into apt below us, she wouldn't let mgnt to come in, i told her let them in, call a plumber, this went on into august and mgnt came up, complaint from neighbour downstairs saying their was water in their apt downstairs, she refused to let maintenance in, police came due to health and sanitary issue. She wouldn't let them in, i did, its unsafe, i said get it fixed, she was pissed off, went in room and slammed her door. Its been like this on and off since my best friend took his own life. Shes been punching walls, stabbing walls in washroom, breaking property belonging to her, and i wouldn't put it past her to be disrupting other people and destroying other peoples property.

2303: When you hear this glass smashing. Where is she?

VB: Um, ive seen her throw stuff where our couch is, "describes interior", seen her throw glass in the direction of the balcony, balcony closed, mural covers the balcony, ive seen her move it and open the door, i didn't know what was going on, i havent been in that area since the incident, i refuse, if she went out there i wouldn't know whats she doing.

2303: When she is out there... Have you seen her out there?

VB: Seen her open the door, not physically step out. I try to not socialize too much, i go in my room and whatever happens when shes there....

2303: When she opens the door, nothing between her and the balcony?

VB: No.

2303: What do you hear?

VB: Shouting, havent seen throw out the balcony, ive seen throw it at it.

2303: Earlier in your statement you said you heard something when she was out on the balcony, what did you hear?

VB: Yelling.

2303: Did you hear any objects breaking or smashing?

VB: No.

2303: Has anyone in the past month been on the balcony besides her?

VB: No.

2303: No?

VB: I refuse to go.

2303: Switching gears, we came to you, knocked on your door, and ive spoke and you exited under your own will - is that correct?

VB: That's correct.

2303: I'm a police officer, you saw my badge?

VB: Yes.

2303: Did i say anything about who i was?

VB: You identified yourself as a police officer.

2303: In here with Mr. Sammeroff who is a police officer. He wearing a police uniform, i can clearly see he is a policeman.

2303: A good one too.

VB: I can tell.

2303: So you exit, she is not happy to see me. Is that correct?

VB: No.

2303: Did i force myself into her apt at all?

VB: No.

2303: Did you hear me say anything rude or illegal?

VB: No.

2303: So we leave and talk to you, now providing a statement.

VB: yes.

2303: Do you feel comfortable walking up to your apartment, going to sleep feeling fine? I mean do you fear she will do anything silly.

VB: I fear i will get grilled, she will want to know what i said, i'm okay telling her, because its the truth, she knows its the truth, i got more than 100lbs on her, so if she comes at me.

 2303: The person that lives directly beneath you, is there an issue between her and Jenna?
 VB: I know Jenna doesnt like her.
 2303: Why?
 VB: Heard Jenna called her a bitch, lady actually came up (when flood), i apologized, she said you need to tell jenna to get the pipes fixed, and when i told jenna she came to the door she was mad that i talked to her. Whenever something going on, people at door or someone she doesnt want to deal with, she gets confrontational and tells me not to open the door. I do it, why should i not, theyre not harming me, just want to talk. Youve seen, slams door in your face.
 2303: The glasses you have in the apartment, what do they look like?
 VB: I have plastic ones, um, we dont drinking glasses, ive seen her smash plant, flower bases, we used to have a whole bunch, she'll smash those, i know she bought a whole bunch of drinking glasses, but she doesn't use them, she just bought them but doesn't use them.
 2303: When did she do that?
 VB: 2 months ago.
 2303: Have you seen them at all in the last week or so?
 VB: They're in a yellow bag. Where the Tv is.
 2303: Is there a chance that some are missing?
 VB: I havent checked, but i do know that its any glass she can get her hands on or access to.
 2303: To what?
 VB: Mainly vases, plants, used to have a bunch, and i know theyve been smashed.

On November 23, 2019 at 0939 hours officers were dispatched to 9471 Yonge Street, Richmond Hill apartment 806 for a complaint of harassment. Informed police communications that there had been ongoing harassment from her neighbour in apartment 907 above her. She advised that she had found more glass on her balcony, and had found burnt matches outside of her front door and burn marks on the door.

Officers spoke with [redacted] who advised that she feared for her safety, and believed that the occupant in apartment 907, Yi Chin CHOU was trying to set her unit on fire. She was also afraid that CHOU may try to come into the apartment through the balcony, or break the glass doors.

Officers attended apartment 907 to speak with CHOU. Her roommate, Vanessa BIASINI invited officers inside. Officers observed a set of clear drinking glasses with the same shape as the ones broken on balcony 806 on the table inside 907. One glass was on the floor near the balcony, and there was a significant amount of broken glass near the balcony door.

BIASINI confirmed that the matches seen outside of apartment 806 had been sitting on the karaoke machine in the living room of 907 last night, but were no longer there.

Officers arrested CHOU for mischief at 1146 hours. Rights to counsel and caution were read at 1155 hours. CHOU requested to speak with Mills and Mills law firm. Attempted with negative results. CHOU put in contact with duty counsel.

CHOU was held for show cause hearing.

OTHER VIOLENT VIOLATIONS

A: Because earlier she was asking me, the police came earlier in the week, she wanted to know what I told them, I told her I told the officers I had seen her opening the balcony door but I didn't see her throw anything. I'm pretty much a hermit in my room so I don't really know or see what goes on after a certain time. I hear banging in and around the apartment. She gets angry and she has a tendency to punch walls and I've seen her throw glass at the wall before. Honestly I don't put anything past her, once she gets something in her mind she will not let it go, she will not let it rest.

Q: would it surprise you at all that she is accused of breaking glass onto the balcony below?

A: No

Q: Would it surprise you that she is accused of using matches to try to set fire to the door at 806?

A: That is serious, that is really serious, yes it surprises me.

Q: Do you think she would go that far in this dispute?

A: Honestly she is capable of anything

Q: Do you have anything else to add to your statement?

A: No that's it

Police believe that CHOU will continue to commit mischief offenses against her neighbor in her condo building. CHOU has a history of police contact and it has recently become more frequent and her behaviour has been targeted toward a specific individual in her condo building. Police believe it is necessary to have CHOU in custody to protect the safety of her neighbor. Police are concerned about CHOU's mental health and believe she will continue to harass her neighbour and that her behaviour will continue to escalate.

Narrative: INITIAL OFFICER REPORT - 1

Subject: BAIL VIOLATIONS
Author: 1612 RODRIGUES, MARLENE

At 1618 hours, on November 28, 2019 police were dispatched to 9471 Yonge Street, Apt. 907, Richmond Hill in response to a breach of conditions.

Information received was that the complainant's room mate was on conditions not to be in the apartment. Police arrived on scene and spoke with the complainant, Vanessa who stated that Jenna is in the apartment. Jenna's legal name is CHOU, YI CHIN and in fact is on a recognizance not to attend within 500 metres of 9471 Yonge Street. Police consulted with 2 CRB. Police were allowed entry into the premise by Vanessa. Police arrested Jenna for breach of her recognizance. Jenna was transported to Two District and held for a show cause hearing. Jenna was put into contact with her lawyer, Robert Gonzales at 1950.

Police took a written statement from Vanessa. Vanessa stated that later this morning around 11:30 AM she had finally gotten to sleep after being disturbed for several hours. Soon after Jenna had telephoned her asking her to empty the water bottles that had been in the fridge and was also asking her if anyone had per any food/water that didn't belong to them. This is often a paranoid concern of Jenna's. Vanessa replied that she would empty the bottles of water later as she was tired and hadn't slept. Jenna was persistent on wanting Vanessa to empty the water bottles. Vanessa refused again, saying that she was tired and would do it later and ended the conversation. Vanessa stated that she had a knock at the door. She answered it and it was EMS and police. They informed Vanessa that someone had called saying that someone in the apartment was drugged and to check on them. After informing the police and ambulance that she was not drugged and did not want to attend the hospital, EMS and police left. Soon after police and EMS had left, Vanessa received a telephone call from Jenna stating that she was outside the apartment door. Vanessa answered the door and Jenna came inside. Vanessa asked Jenna if she was allowed to be here and Jenna replied that she was. Vanessa telephoned YRP to confirm that Jenna was not breaching her conditions which resulted in police attending the scene and arresting Jenna.

My name is Daniel PARK, I am a police constable with York Regional Police. I am currently investigating the incident that occurred at 9471 Yonge St in Richmond Hill. I would have any involvement in regards to the incident, what can you tell me about that?

ATKINSON: So about 10:45 am, an older Asian gentleman approached the front desk. He said he wanted to go up to unit 907, knowing that there is some court order I am not able to contact the resident. I told him other resident in that unit, her name is Vanessa, needs to come down to bring him up to the unit. So, then he left front desk area, and called someone. He came back to the front desk when he was able to get a hold of the person on the person. The person on the phone identified herself as the owner of 907, and requested the man go to the unit. The man held out his phone for me to talk to her. I noticed that the phone number was visible. I checked our system, and the phone number was the number that we have on file for Ms. Jenna Chou. She said she wasn't at the unit. So, I told her the other resident still had to come down to bring him up. She responded by saying the other resident was in down town with her. She said they were at the court house. I told her if no one was available to come down to get him and if he had no way to enter the unit then he was not allowed to proceed. And then I told her that to speak to any staffs of this building. She needed to go through solicitor or lawyer. She then told me that she was calling the police and it was the end of the call. And the man left the area. So, at 11:07 am, I received a call from the front desk and it was her. She then told me that she had called the police. I told her again to go through solicitor or her lawyer. She told me she didn't care. She has a legal right for someone to go up to the unit. I told her again to speak to staffs or a solicitor or lawyer and she said she didn't care. So, at 11:21 am, I received another call from her, the call was very choppy but I did ask her to repeat several times she was saying same thing that police were coming and he was allowed to go upstairs and I told her she had to go through either solicitor or lawyer, she then ended the call. At around 11:34 am, a resident came down to the front desk, he received a message from a resident of 907, asking him to help her to bring the gentleman into the building. He said he was there to replace her lock. We had someone coming to do that job between 1 to 5 pm today, and that man had no work order to do so, just her unit number and her phone number written on a crumpled piece of paper. I asked the resident if you let any into the building, he replied No. I told him if he did allow anyone into the building whatever activity takes place in the building is his responsibility. He told me he wouldn't let anyone into the building. He told me that he is also the person that waiting for the locksmith. He told me he may not be here between the hours of 1 to 5 pm, so I told him to speak to the property manager and then he left. So around 12 o'clock, my partner came to the front desk. I proceeded to the 9th floor with our superintendent Greg JONES, I wanted to make sure the man hasn't got into unit 907. When we arrived at the door, I noticed there was a rope or string tied around the door knob, and it was going through to other side of the door and the door was not secure. I put my ear up to the door to listen any activity inside and heard nothing. I then knocked loudly on the door and still heard no noise from the unit. It appeared the reason for rope was to keep the door locked for someone to be able to access it. After taking the pictures, Mr. JONES and myself went to management office. I told this to the property manager, Samit HAZRA, he asked me to write a report and send him the photos. I sent him the photos first and sent him the report afterwards.

Q: What is your name and title here?

[I am PC Rodrigues #1612 with York Regional Police and I am investigating an incident that occurred at 1618 hours on November 28, 2019 involving Jenna Cho. What can you tell me about it?

venessa was drugged but doesn't know. I tasted her water myself.

How would she recall the date leading to this?

So um, I have to give you some background. Earlier this afternoon Jenna had called me. I had been asleep, I fell asleep at 11:30 in the morning. Jenna was worried someone had out food or drinks in the fridge that wasn't supposed to be there, or items that weren't purchased by me or her. So I told her the fridge was fine and there was nothing in there that wasn't supposed to. She asked me to dump the water bottles that were in the fridge that she had refilled. When I told that I wasn't going to do that because I haven't slept and I was too tired, she proceeded to say that I had been drugged and that wasn't myself. I told her that I was just tired and that I haven't slept and would empty the bottles later. She told me to wake up and take a cold shower and that I had been drugged and to empty the bottles right away. I told her, Jenna I'm not awake, let me just sleep, then when I wake up I'll empty the bottles. About 20 minutes later I get a knock at the door and its the police and paramedics. I opened the door and let them in, they informed me someone had called and said someone in this unit had been drugged and to check on them. So spoke with the officers and assured them that I was okay and that I was not drugged and that I was very tired and hadn't slept. I had been up for 24 hours. The paramedics asked if I needed to go to the hospital. I said no I was okay and that they could go help other people that actually needed their help. Once the police officers left I went back to my room and I went back to sleep. Thirty minutes later I got a phone call from Jenna. The officers left at about 1:30 PM and Jenna called saying that she was at the door to the unit at about 1:45 PM. I got up, I opened the door to the unit, she came in, she was like rooting around the apartment, opening doors, opening cupboards. She came into my room and was looking through some of the doors in the desk and then she came and sat on the couch and was having her cigarettes and that's basically where she stayed. I confronted her about the visit from the police and paramedics and she told me she did not call them. I told her that I didn't believe her. Then I asked her if she was allowed to come back here. She said yeah it's my place, I'm allowed here. Then I told her I was going to YRP to ask them if she was allowed to be. At the time I was vaguely aware of her conditions but not any specifics. The only specific I knew was that she wasn't supposed to have contact with the tenant below us and to be here. She didn't respond so I called the non-emergency police line. So I spoke with the call taker who routed me to District Two. I spoke with dispatch at District Two and made them aware of the situation, asking if Jenna was allowed to be here and if she wasn't to dispatch officers to the unit. So the police did come arrested her.

Q: Is there anything you would like to add to this statement?

A: I believe Jenna is mentally unstable and extremely paranoid. She believes people are listening to her from the vests so she covers them. She believes people are breaking into the apartment. She is paranoid about the management always trying to break her locks on her front door. She believes people are putting food in the fridge and drugging me.]

Exactly!
